

John Hardwick: is a bit like a modern day jester. He juggles and sings, and tells stories for His King.

John Hardwick is recommended by: Bob Hartman: Best selling Writer and Story teller. Alan Charter: Head of Missions for SU. Rachael Orrell: Spring Harvest Children's/ All-age coordinator.

John Often works with churches for a Weekend

A typical Weekend Visit:

John Travels Friday night.

Weekend Timetable could look like this:

Saturday morning: 10-12.30: 'Creative Communication' Training Session. Please invite other churches to join you for this a 'Churches Together' training event.

Saturday Afternoon: 3.30-5.00pm: A Cool'n'Crazy Praise Party - A family event: Once again you could invite other churches along.

Sunday Morning: All-age Service.

Ideally; these weekends work best as 'Churches working together' events.

A week-end of events for Children's workers and Children.

A time of encouragement, networking, having fun, learning and worshiping together.

Advantage in working together:

- More people to organize the events
- Shared costs
- More likely to have a decent turn out!

(Praise Parties work much better when there are a decent number of people. Everyone joins in more and it creates a great atmosphere. It's also important for children to realize they are 'not alone', but lots of other children are Christians too!)

In today climate God's people need to work together, net work, support one another. Together we can do so much more. God bless those who work together in unity.

Psalm 133. Why train 5 or 6 people when you could have 30 or more all sharing ideas and inspiring one another!
